
Then a while ago,
I took out a CD from the drawer
in the lounge.

The CD was of some home videos that were filmed when he was a kid.

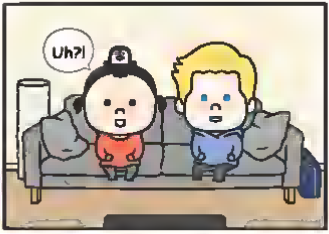
The scene was when they stopped at the small shop by the canal



Of course,...

His 'fixing' personality doesn't only work in the house.
It also appears very often when we are outside as well.

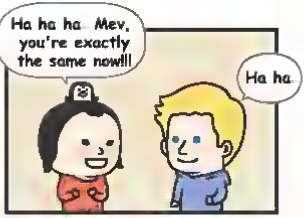
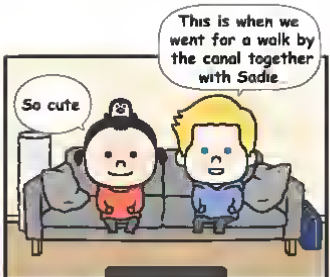
I could see that Mev was fixing the sign outside of the shop.



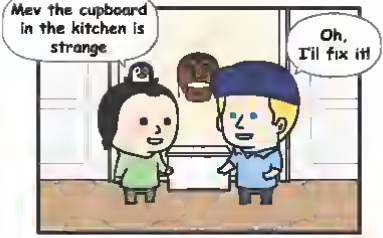
As the boy is, so is the man.
He hasn't changed at all.

A Good Citezen

One of the interesting things about Mev's personality is that he likes to fix things.



Child Mev was in the video.



If he finds something wrong
then he tries to fix it as soon as possible instead of putting it to one side.

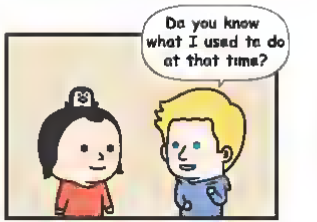
It was interesting because kids who are around that age are more likely to break things than to fix them.



I don't know.

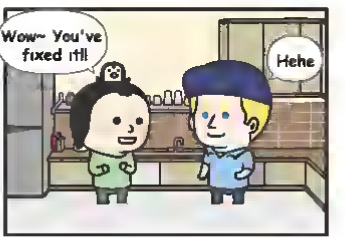
I like this about his personality because....



... he is very helpful and useful.

Well...

...It's very admirable
but also... weird.

Check out the video on my Vlog channel

Or he tidies up other people's mess.

It seems very easy to ignore things
if it's not connected with you but he does these things without any problems and I think it's a cool thing

He said he used to do this far fun.
